Sunday Gospel Reflection

Think of some of your favorite iconic movies. I'm not talking about the feel-good comedies or the offbeat coming-of-age flicks. I'm talking about the movies that you found had a profound impact on you or made you go "Hmmm."

I'm willing to bet that the plot of this film features some tough moments and difficult scenarios. However happy the ending, at some point, the situation for the protagonist might look awfully hopeless. The script speaks some truth to you about what it is to be human in difficult circumstances. What it means to persevere.

We're attracted to the tension that exists when the hero is besieged. We're captivated by the decisions he makes in the darkest hour of the night when it seems like the dawn will never come. Why? Because we know that feeling so well. This is the essence of our human life on earth: waiting, hoping, doubting — and enduring.

We know the ending to our story, but we don't know when it's coming. We live our whole lives in the rising action of the narrative. Sure, it gets old. Tiresome, even dull. We may start to despair that the climactic scene is coming at all.

But faith is the realization of things hoped for, and evidence of things not seen. We feel it watching a great movie, because we recognize it intuitively: it is faith which earns the happy ending. No one is drawn to the story when the hero gives up or gets tired of waiting for the payoff. Everyday stewardship is the collection of choices we make while we're waiting, because we are called to action, not idleness, even in our perpetual state of expectation. ©LPi

Reflexión del Evangelio

Piensa en algunas de tus películas icónicas favoritas. No estoy hablando de las comedias para sentirse bien o las películas poco convencionales sobre la mayoría de edad. Estoy hablando de las películas que encontraste que tuvieron un profundo impacto en ti o te hicieron decir "Hmmm."

Estoy dispuesto a apostar que la trama de esta película presenta algunos momentos duros y escenarios difíciles. Por muy feliz que sea el final, en algún momento, la situación para el protagonista puede parecer terriblemente desesperada. El guión te dice algo de verdad sobre lo que es ser humano en circunstancias difíciles. Lo que significa perseverar.

Nos atrae la tensión que existe cuando el héroe es asediado. Nos cautivan las decisiones que toma en la hora más oscura de la noche cuando parece que nunca llegará el amanecer. ¿Por qué? Porque conocemos muy bien ese sentimiento. Esta es la esencia de nuestra vida humana en la tierra: esperar, esperanzar, dudar y resistir.

Conocemos el final de nuestra historia, pero no sabemos cuándo llegará. Vivimos toda nuestra vida en la acción creciente de la narración. Claro, pasa de moda. Fastidiosa, incluso aburrida. Podemos comenzar a desesperarnos pensando si la escena culminante llegara.

Pero la fe es la realización de las cosas que se esperan, y la evidencia de las cosas que no se ven. Lo sentimos viendo una gran película, porque lo reconocemos intuitivamente: es la fe la que gana el final feliz. Nadie se siente atraído por la historia cuando el héroe se da por vencido o se cansa de esperar la recompensa. La corresponsabilidad diaria es el conjunto de elecciones que hacemos mientras esperamos, porque estamos llamados a la acción, no a la ociosidad, incluso en nuestro estado perpetuo de expectativa. ©LPi

Why do we do that?

Question:
On August 10 we celebrate the feast of St. Lawrence. Can you tell us a bit about him?

Answer:
Little is known about Lawrence other than he was a deacon during the reign of Emperor Valerian from 253–259. In 258, Valerian began a persecution of the Roman Church. Lawrence was in charge of the purse for the Church of Rome. Roman officials demanded that the riches of the church be handed over to them. Lawrence asked for a few days to gather them.

Lawrence took the money he had charge over and distributed it to the poor of Rome. Then he gathered all the homeless and poor together. When the officials came again demanding the riches of the church, Lawrence pointed to the destitute and homeless, saying that these were the true riches of the church. For this he was imprisoned and tortured, and put to death by burning on a gridiron. It is said that as he was dying, he told his executioners to turn him over because he was done on one side and needed to be fully cooked for the Lord. Lawrence continues to be a model for us today. The church needs continual reminders that its riches are the people. The primary purpose and mission of the church is to be continually sensitive to the needs of all God's people, most especially the least of our brothers and sisters. ©LPi

Questions of the Week

First Reading: Our wisdom writer speaks of the importance of trust in God's divine providence. How do you know that God has provided for you?

Second Reading: The author of Hebrews defines faith as "the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen." He then sites Abraham as the model of faith in terms of his obedience, trust, and courage. When have you had to completely trust in the Lord?

Gospel: In today's Gospel reading, Jesus teaches the disciples about being vigilant and faithful with the gifts God has given us as we await the end times and return of Jesus. How well do you think you are stewarding the gifts God has given you? ©LPi

Preguntas de la Semana

Primera Lectura: Nuestro escritor de la Sabiduría habla de la importancia de confiar en la divina providencia de Dios. ¿Cómo sabes que Dios ha proveído para ti?

Segunda Lectura: El autor de Hebreos define la fe como "poseer, ya desde ahora, lo que se espera y de conocer las realidades que no se ven." Luego menciona a Abraham como modelo de fe en términos de su obediencia, confianza y valentía. ¿Cuándo has tenido que confiar completamente en el Señor?

Evangelio: En la lectura del Evangelio de hoy, Jesús enseña a los discípulos a ser vigilantes y fieles con los dones que Dios nos ha dado mientras esperamos el fin de los tiempos y el regreso de Jesús. ¿Qué tan bien crees que estás administrando los dones que Dios te ha dado? ©LPi

Did you know?

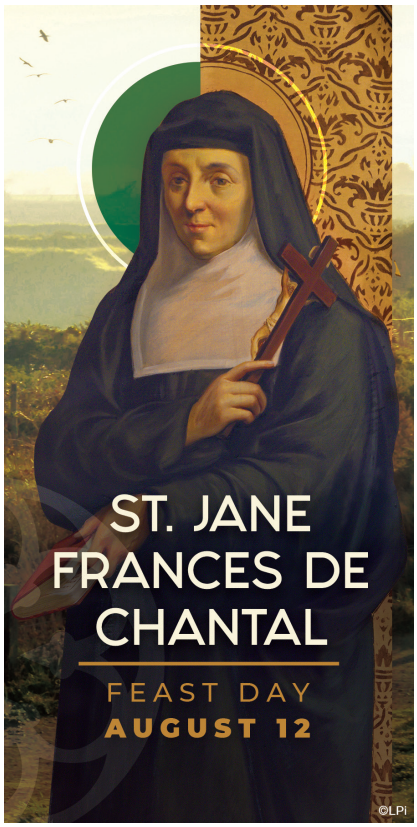
Ways children go missing

According to the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children, there are a few significant ways that children go missing. Nearly half of all families with autistic children have reported that their children wander and have gone missing. Other ways include abduction, either by a stranger or family members, and child sex trafficking. Parents need to be aware of warning signs and know how to take action. For information, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article, "Ways Children Go Missing," at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

¿Sabia Usted?

Formas en que desaparecen los niños

Según el Centro Nacional para Niños Desaparecidos y Explotados, hay algunas formas significativas en que los niños desaparecen. Casi la mitad de las familias con niños autistas han informado que sus hijos deambulan y después desaparecen. Otras formas de desaparición incluyen el secuestro, ya sea por un extraño o por miembros de la familia, y el tráfico sexual de niños. Los padres de familia deben estar atentos a las señales de advertencia y saber cómo actuar. Para obtener información, solicite una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® en inglés, "Ways Children Go Missing" (Formas en que desaparecen los niños), en lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.



Saint Jane Frances de Chantal was born to a noble family in Dijon, France, on January 28, 1572. Her mother died when she was an infant. Her father raised her and provided for her education. In 1592 She married the Baron de Chantal, the couple were devoted to each other. They had six children, three of whom died in infancy. As Baroness, Saint Jane Frances restored the custom of daily Mass, and was famous for her charitable works. Unfortunately, her husband died in a hunting accident only eight years after their marriage. Devastated Jane Frances was forced to live in her father-in-law's strict household where she took a vow of chastity.

In 1604 while visiting her father in Dijon, she met Saint Francis de Sales and he became her close friend and spiritual director. Although not many of their epistles have survived, the pair had a lively correspondence which lasted until Saint Francis died.

Under the direction of St. Francis de Sales and with his partnership she established the Congregation of the Visitation at Annecy in 1610. This was a unique order, without the extreme ascetical practices typical in other religious orders, accepting women and girls and those rejected by other orders because of poor health or age. The new order was also unusual in its public ministry, rather than a strictly cloistered life. Saint Jane transformed her convent at Annecy into a hospital during the plague of 1628.

The saint died at the Visitation Convent in Moulins on December 13, 1641. At the time of her death, there were 86 convents of Visitation nuns. She was canonized in 1767 by Pope Clement XIII. ©LPi
