Sunday Gospel Reflection

A protestant pastor friend of mine was invited to meet Pope Francis with a group of other pastors. He noticed the Pope's chair was especially ornate and set at the head of the group. He somewhat playfully said, "Holy Father, why do you get that special chair?" The group chuckled nervously at my friend's audacious chide. The following year, the group was invited to return. They entered the room to find only simple chairs placed in a circle. Pope Francis entered, sat down in one of the humble chairs and, looking directly at my friend, with a twinkle in his eye, asked, "What do you think of my chair now?"

My friend was stunned that the Pope remembered his concerns – and took the time to answer them. Thomas the apostle was certainly stunned by the Risen Jesus displaying his wounds in person. But he also must have been equally shocked that Jesus knew and answered his particular questions, worries, and even demands related to his faith. How humbled – and perhaps a bit terrified – he must have been to realize God remembers his concerns and cares enough to answer them.

What questions or demands about Jesus do you find in your heart? Like Thomas, will you be bold enough to voice them this week? How wonderful to know that if we do so, God will remember and respond even to our most audacious desires. – Father John Muir ©LPi

Reflexión del Evangelio

¿Sabías qué? el segundo domingo del Tiempo Pascual fue designado "Domingo de la Divina Misericordia" por el Papa Juan Pablo II, en el año 2,000 durante la canonización de santa Faustina Kowalska. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, en su número 1225, ilumina y catequiza lo que el Papa y santa Faustina nos transmitieron al experimentar la misericordia divina en sus vidas. "En su Pascua, Cristo abrió a todos los hombres las fuentes del Bautismo. En efecto, había hablado ya de su pasión que iba a sufrir en Jerusalén como de un Bautismo con que debía ser bautizado. La sangre y el agua que brotaron del costado traspasado de Jesús crucificado son figuras del Bautismo y de la Eucaristía, sacramentos de la vida nueva: desde entonces, es posible nacer del agua y del Espíritu para entrar en el Reino de Dios". Santa Faustina al pintar el retrato del Señor de la Misericordia nos muestra esta imagen de la misericordia de Cristo Crucificado dada a nosotros por el Bautismo y la Eucaristía.

El Papa Francisco, también, nos lo explica de la siguiente manera: "La misericordia a la luz de la Pascua se deja percibir como una verdadera forma de conocimiento. Se conoce a través de los sentidos, se conoce a través de la intuición, a través de la razón y aún de otras formas. Bien, se puede conocer también a través de la experiencia de la misericordia, porque la misericordia abre la puerta de la mente para comprender mejor el misterio de Dios y de nuestra experiencia personal (16 de abril del 2023).

St. Andrew of Crete

St. Andrew of Crete was born in Damascus and was mute until he received his First Communion at age 7. He went on to be an influential archbishop and hymnist in Crete. His most renowned work, the Great Canon, is chanted during Lent in Eastern Orthodox churches.

San Andrés de Creta

San Andrés de Creta nació en Damasco y fue mudo hasta que recibió su Primera Comunión a los 7 años. Llegó a ser un influyente arzobispo e himnista en Creta. Su obra más famosa, el Gran Canon, se canta durante la Cuaresma en las iglesias ortodoxas orientales.

Inspiration of the Week!

We find unfathomable mercy and everlasting love in the wounds of Christ — even when we are skeptical, even when we carry doubt. God meets us there in the confusion. He reaches for our hand and places them at his side. We just have to call his name. ©LPi

Inspiración de la Semana

Encontramos una misericordia insondable y un amor eterno en las heridas de Cristo, incluso cuando somos escépticos, incluso cuando tenemos dudas. Dios nos encuentra allí en la confusión. Toma nuestra mano y la coloca a su lado. Sólo tenemos que decir su nombre. ©LPi

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for April: For the role of women

Monthly Prayer for Mental Health

This month the Pope asks us to pray that the dignity and immense value of women be recognized, and for the end of discrimination that they experience. Statistics on women's mental health highlight this discrimination. One in five women compared with one in eight men have a mental disorder. Pope Francis says, "women are able to bring love where love is lacking." Not surprisingly, women are leading the way in bringing mental health ministry into the life of the Church by providing spiritual support and comfort for people experiencing mental health challenges, as well as those who care for them.

Mental Health Ministry

Featured on the Pope's Prayer Network
We pray that mental health ministry becomes an integral ministry in the Church that is available in every Catholic parish and community.

We pray for the elimination of the stigma and discrimination that people living with a mental illness encounter.

Written in the Wounds

For all the condemnation Thomas the Doubter has received in 2000 years of homilies, I think there's something to admire in him. Thomas is not unique. We all waver at some point, overcome by hesitation, distracted by the clamor of the world which seeks at every turn to shout above the whisper of the divine.

Thomas knows what he saw on Good Friday: his friend nailed to a cross, a sword driven through his body. He saw the blood and the water. He saw these things with his own eyes, eyes given to him by God, eyes which have never failed him before. And God doesn't ask us to suspend reality to believe in Him. He only asks us to be discerning about how that reality is interpreted in our hearts. Thomas knows the man before him is either a fraud, preying on the hopes and anxieties of the traumatized disciples, or he is the Christ, the Savior of the world, accomplisher of impossible things. But where to look, to tell the difference? Satan once appeared to the great mystic saint, Teresa of Avila, disguised as Jesus. She knew instantly that he was a fraud. Enraged, he demanded to know where his deception had failed. "You have no wounds," she told him simply.

Could we have accepted a savior who did not bleed? I don't think we could, because sooner or later, we would all stand before him and say, "Here is where the world hurt me. Here, and here, and here. What about you?" Christ can point to his hands, his feet, his side. "Here, and here, and here," he can say. "And I overcame them all." It's the wounds, you see. The truth is in the wounds. Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" — John 20:28 ©LPi

Escrito en las Heridas

A pesar de toda la condena que Tomás el Incrédulo ha recibido en 2000 años de homilias, creo que hay algo que admirar en él. Tomás no es el único. Todos vacilamos en algún momento, vencidos por la indecisión, distraídos por el clamor del mundo que busca a cada paso gritar por encima del susurro de lo divino.

Tomás sabe lo que vio el Viernes Santo: a su amigo clavado en una cruz y una espada atravesándole el cuerpo. Vio la sangre y el agua. Vio estas cosas con sus propios ojos, ojos que Dios le dio, ojos que nunca antes le habían fallado. Y Dios no nos pide que suspendamos la realidad para creer en Él. Sólo nos pide que seamos discernidores sobre cómo se interpreta esa realidad en nuestro corazón. Tomás sabe que el hombre que tiene ante él es o un fraude, que se aprovecha de las esperanzas y ansiedades de los discípulos traumatizados, o es el Cristo, el Salvador del mundo, realizador de cosas imposibles. ¿Pero dónde mirar para notar la diferencia?

Satanás se apareció una vez a la gran mística, santa Teresa de Ávila, disfrazado de Jesús. Ella supo al instante que él era un fraude. Enfurecido, exigió saber en qué había fallado su engaño. "No tienes heridas," le dijo simplemente. ¿Podríamos haber aceptado un salvador que no sangrara? No creo que pudiéramos, porque tarde o temprano todos nos presentaríamos ante él y diríamos: "Aquí es donde el mundo me lastimó. Aquí, aquí y aquí. ¿Y a ti?" Cristo puede señalar sus manos, sus pies, su costado. "Aquí, y aquí, y aquí," puede decir. "Y los superaré a todos." Son las heridas, como puedes ver. La verdad está en las heridas. Tomás respondió y le dijo: "¡Señor mío y Dios mío!" — Juan 20:28 ©LPi
