Sunday Gospel Reflection

From a young age, I loved winning at sports. I confess that winning was a bit of an addiction. It was probably coming from a deep desire for attention and affirmation from others. Nevertheless, it was a driving motivation for me. Baseball, soccer, track, table tennis, and whatever else I could find was a chance to win. Competition was my obsession.

Another John, and his brother James, demonstrate a kind of wildly competitive obsession when they dare to say to Jesus: "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory" (Mark 10:37). Their audacity arouses an indigent reaction from the other apostles, who are clearly raw that these two are out to win the highest spots.

How does Jesus respond to us in our desires for greatness? The same way he does to James and John. He does not criticize them for their desire for glory. But he does highlight their ignorance ("you do not know what you are asking"). Then he invites them to be champions of true greatness: by drinking not the cup of worldly victory, but his cup of self-giving suffering love, to be the "slave of all." The true winners are slaves of love. This week, dare to tell Jesus what your ambitions truly are. Hear him call you to an even greater victory. — Father John Muir

Reflexión del Evangelio

Ciertamente que en el evangelio de hoy se pasaron de listos los discípulos Santiago y Juan. Ya que le pidieron a Jesús algo que causó enojo en el resto del grupo de los doce. Y no pedían poca cosa, nada más y nada menos que sentarse a la derecha de Jesús, cuando estuviera en su gloria. De hecho, no sabían lo que pedían, ni siquiera imaginaban que para ello se tiene que servir y trabajar duro en cuestión del discipulado. Sin embargo, hay que entenderlos desde un punto de vista muy humano, pretender grandes y buenos puestos nos gusta a todos. Y más si no implica sacrificio alguno.

Jesús deja muy claro lo que significa seguirlo y desear estar en primer lugar: "El que quiera ser el más importante entre ustedes, debe hacerse el servidor de todos. Y el que quiera ser el primero, se hará esclavo de todos" (Marcos 10: 43-44). Es decir, no oprimir a los demás como si fuesen sus dueños, no imponer sus ideas, ni sus condiciones de opresión. Para que quede más claro aún, la ley del Reino de Dios es el sufrimiento y el servicio a los que nos rodean. ¿Crees esto? ¿Te atreverías pedirle a Jesús sentarte a su lado sin hacer nada por los demás? Reflexiona en tu vida actualmente, no corras el riesgo de extraviarte en bagatelas por los caminos de la vida. Si escuchas los consejos de Jesús a sus discípulos de aquel entonces, verás que son los mismos para nosotros ahora. Servir y amar sin condiciones, dar la vida en el día a día con alegría, dejando el perfume de Cristo a nuestro paso. ©LPI

A CULTURE OF LIFE

"ALL TOGETHER, WE MUST BUILD A NEW CULTURE OF LIFE: NEW, BECAUSE IT WILL BE ABLE TO CONFRONT AND SOLVE TODAY'S UNPRECEDENTED PROBLEMS AFFECTING HUMAN LIFE."

SAINT JOHN PAUL II
EVANGELIUM VITAE 95

A prayer for a culture of Life

Good and Gracious God, You call your people to live out the Gospel of life, building a new culture of life in which we recognize that each person is made in your image and likeness. Renew our hearts and inspire us to honor and respect the dignity of human life from conception until natural death. Help us be instruments of mercy and love, acting as missionary disciples and imitating the pastoral care of the Good Samaritan to both those we call our neighbor and to those we call our stranger.

United together, may your people through charity and service transform the world into one that promotes the sacredness of human dignity, where human life is defended and protected.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Oración por una Cultura de Vida

Dios bueno y misericordioso, Tú llamas a tu pueblo a vivir el Evangelio de la vida, construyendo una nueva cultura de la vida en la que reconocemos que cada persona está hecha a tu imagen y semejanza. Renueva nuestros corazones e inspíranos a honrar y respetar la dignidad de la vida humana desde la concepción hasta la muerte natural. Ayúdanos a ser instrumentos de misericordia y amor, actuando como discípulos misioneros e imitando el cuidado pastoral del Buen Samaritano, hacia los que llamamos vecinos y hacia los que llamamos extranjeros.

Unidos, haz que tu pueblo, mediante la caridad y el servicio, transformemos el mundo en uno que promueva el carácter sagrado de la dignidad humana, en el que se defienda y proteja la vida humana. Te lo pedimos por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo, Dios, por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.

Nondiscrimination Policy

2024-2025

School Student Non-Discrimination Policy

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

The 42nd Annual Red Mass

OCTOBER 23, 2024 • 5:30 p.m. • Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels

The St. Thomas More Society of Los Angeles cordially invites you to the 42nd Annual Red Mass on Wednesday, October 23, 2024, at 5:30 pm at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels. A hosted reception will follow.

Archbishop José H. Gomez will be the principal celebrant, and the homilist will be Rev. Greg Boyle, S.J., the Founder of Homeboy Industries and a 2024 Presidential Medal of Freedom recipient. Hon. Carolyn Kuhl, former presiding judge of Los Angeles Superior Court, will be the closing speaker. The newly elected Assistant Presiding Judge of Los Angeles Superior Court, Hon. Ricardo Ocampo, will be the lector. Several other judges and dignitaries are expected to attend. Knights of Columbus, Knights of Peter Claver, Order of Malta and the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem are also expected to participate.

We invite you to concelebrate! Please plan to arrive by 5:15 pm with your white alb. Vestments will be provided. We kindly request that you RSVP to Michele Friend at mfriend@la-archdiocese.org if you plan to attend.

First celebrated in Paris in 1245, the Red Mass is a tradition celebrated annually at the opening of the Judicial Year, significantly that of the U.S. Supreme Court each October. The Red Mass received its name from the Celebrant's vestments in red, and the Lord High Justices' robes of brilliant scarlet. In Los Angeles, this annual tradition is sponsored by the St. Thomas More Society of Los Angeles, a non-profit association of Catholic legal professionals. In our community, the Red Mass is offered in prayer for judges, lawyers, legislators, and legal professionals of all faiths and traditions. More information can be found at www.stmsla.org

Did you know?

What can be done if a person is taking pictures of a minor in a public place? Although it is legal that a person can take pictures or videos in a public place, there are sometimes extenuating circumstances that require adults to pay more attention. Is the person taking photos acting suspiciously – focusing on only minor children, for example, or zooming in on specific body areas of their subjects? Are they hovering around groups of children with no seeming reason for being there? If you have concerns, speak up. Ask why the photos are being taken, or if the person is willing to delete the images of your child. From there, you can decide if you need to get the authorities involved. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article “When People Take Photos and Videos of Minors Without Permission” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

¿Sabia Usted?

¿Qué se puede hacer si una persona está tomando fotografías de un menor en un lugar público? Aunque es legal que una persona pueda tomar fotografías o videos en un lugar público, a veces hay circunstancias atenuantes que requieren que los adultos presten más atención. ¿La persona que toma las fotografías está actuando de manera sospechosa, enfocándose solo en niños menores, por ejemplo, o haciendo zoom en áreas específicas del cuerpo de sus sujetos? ¿Están rondando grupos de niños sin ninguna razón aparente para estar allí? Si tiene inquietudes, hable. Pregunte por qué se están tomando las fotos o si la persona está dispuesta a eliminar las imágenes de su hijo. A partir de ahí, puede decidir si necesita involucrar a las autoridades. Para obtener más información, lea el artículo de VIRTUS® en inglés, “When People Take Photos and Videos of Minors Without Permission” (Cuando las personas toman fotos y videos de menores sin permiso) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
