Sunday Gospel Reflection

The best way to understand the Eucharist is to recall God's long, careful teaching process beginning in the Old Testament. This week in Exodus 24, we learn the basic pattern. Moses reads the dictates of God's law to the people, who profess their allegiance to it. Then Moses takes representatives of Israel's twelve tribes and splashes the sacrificed blood of animals in two directions: on the altar and on the people. It's clear and serious business: clear, because the participants are entering a blood-bond with God Himself; serious, because the dead animals symbolize the life-and-death stakes at play.

Many centuries later, God uses the experience at Sinai to teach us something new. At the Last Supper, like a new Moses, Jesus proposes to "pour out" blood as a new covenant. It will land on the altar of the cross and the lips of his disciples. They have promised to be obedient to him who is God's law in flesh. This renews and elevates the breath-taking romance God wants with His people, unfolding from Sinai to this Supper. The Body and Blood of Christ is the sacrificial action whereby this covenant is strengthened.

How hopeful that, like us, the Israelites and the apostles repeatedly fail to live up to their promises and discover that the blood of the covenant continually renews and refreshes them. Today the blood of Christ faithfully flows, to unite and renew, moving us forward toward where our great teacher is taking us. This week, we should say a renewed "amen" to God who so carefully teaches us how to be one with Him in this new covenant. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Reflexión del Evangelio

En el año 304, durante el reinado del emperador Diocleciano, en Abitinia, África, hubo un grupo de 49 mártires cristianos declarados culpables por haber celebrado la Eucaristía: "No podemos ser cristianos sin la Eucaristía". Cuando leí sobre estos santos mártires, me sorprendí acerca de su entusiasmo y valor para responder sobre el amor a la Eucaristía. Ellos prefirieron el sacrificio de la muerte antes que renunciar al amor de Jesús en la Eucaristía. ¿Qué pensamos ahora de ellos? ¿Cuánto amor y respeto tengo por la Eucaristía? ¿Soy capaz de morir si me prohibieran asistir a Misa?

Creo que necesitamos muchas catequesis sobre no ser indiferentes ante Jesús Eucaristía. Seamos conscientes de lo que el Papa Francisco nos pide valorar: "En la Eucaristía contemplamos y adoramos al Dios del amor. Es el Señor, que no quebranta a nadie, sino que se parte a sí mismo. Es el Señor, que no exige sacrificios, sino que se sacrifica él mismo. Es el Señor, que no pide nada, sino que entrega todo. Para celebrar y vivir la Eucaristía, también, nosotros estamos llamados a vivir este amor. Porque no puedes partir el Pan del domingo si tu corazón está cerrado a los hermanos. No puedes comer de este Pan si no compartes los sufrimientos del que está pasando necesidad". (06-06-2021). El mensaje del Papa Francisco es claro y conciso, no podemos comer de ese Pan si no nos convertimos en pan partido a los demás. ©LPi

English Lector Ministry

Are you called to proclaim the Word of God? All those baptized receive gifts from the Spirit ... gifts that can be used in a variety of ways to serve the Lord and each other. Answering the call to become a Lector allows you to enter into a deeper relationship with God, as God is revealed in sacred scripture.

Those participating in the Lector Ministry proclaim the Word at Masses offered on the weekends, during the week, special celebrations and on Holy Days of Obligation. New members are always welcome! We especially need help at the 5:00pm Saturday Mass and 12:30pm Sunday Mass. If you feel called into this ministry, please scan the QR code and fill out the form.

Peter's Pence Collection

*Be a sign of

Turkey and Syria are situated in a region that experiences frequent, major earthquakes. In early February 2023, central Turkey's most powerful earthquake since 1939 struck with a magnitude of 7.8. More than 10,000 aftershocks continued for weeks afterward, including a powerful magnitude 6.4 aftershock that struck the biblical city of Antioch, known as Antakya. More than 50,000 people in Turkey and neighboring Syria were killed by the initial earthquake, followed by more deaths and the destruction of structures damaged by the first earthquake. UN officials estimated that more than 1.5 million people were left homeless in what is believed to be the largest natural disaster in Turkey's history.

In a mid-February meeting with Turkey's new ambassador to the Holy See, Pope Francis asked what sort of aid Turkey most needed. Within 24 hours, Cardinal Konrad Krajewski, the papal almoner and prefect of the Vatican's Dicastery for the Service of Charity, organized a shipment of canned food, diapers, thermal garments, and other necessities, to be sent from Rome to a warehouse in Turkey for distribution to those in need. At the same time, economic aid to Syrian victims was entrusted to the apostolic nunciature in Syria. In addition to this material relief, the Vatican's prefect for the Dicastery for the Eastern Churches, Archbishop Claudio Gugerotti, visited Syria and Turkey to provide a ministry of presence to victims.

The Holy Father's charitable outreach to victims of war, migrants and refugees, the poor, and those affected by illness and natural disasters is supported by your contributions to the Peter's Pence Collection. When you participate in the collection, you join Catholics across the globe in supporting the pope's mission of mercy as well as the Holy See dicasteries that assist his ministry.

A Tradition of Support for the Holy Father

Support for such papal efforts is rooted in the scriptural message exhorting us to take care of the poor, and it expresses unity with the Holy Father in two ways: through the ongoing activities of the Holy See and through the charitable works of the Holy Father on behalf of those most in need.

Frutos de la Sagrada Comunión

Pregunta: ¿Cuáles son los "frutos" de la sagrada Comunión?

Respuesta: La Eucaristía, como todos los sacramentos, ofrece su propia gracia única. Recibimos una participación especial en la vida de Dios que nos ayuda en nuestro camino de fe. Se nos da todo lo que necesitamos para sostener y nutrir nuestra relación con Dios. La Eucaristía es fuente y cumbre de la vida cristiana. Todo lo que somos y todo lo que esperamos llegar a ser se encuentra en este sacramento. Es esencial para la vida de la iglesia, para cada miembro de la iglesia. Sin ella, no hay iglesia. La Eucaristía es el centro de nuestra vida espiritual y tiene enormes efectos en nuestro crecimiento, nuestra santidad y nuestra forma de vida. Los frutos de la sagrada Comunión son los beneficios que uno recibe del sacramento. Estos frutos de la Sagrada Comunión se analizan en el catecismo en el artículo sobre la Eucaristía. El beneficio principal es la unión con Cristo. Nos volvemos uno con él sacramentalmente, así como esperamos ser uno con él por la eternidad. La Eucaristía también nos separa del pecado, tanto pasado como futuro. Perdona los pecados veniales del pasado y, por el amor que recibimos, nos protege del pecado mortal en el futuro. La comunidad eclesial también se unifica y fortalece por la Eucaristía. Nos une a los pobres y ofrece la promesa de la vida eterna.

¿Sabia Usted?

Cómo modelar comportamientos puede ayudar a prevenir el abuso

Did you know?

How modeling behaviors can help prevent abuse

Adults have a responsibility to provide the young people in their care with examples of responsible adult behavior. Small behaviors like following the rules, listening to the children in your life, wearing your seatbelt, looking both ways before crossing the street — these all teach children that you are a trusted adult and that you can be counted on to do the right thing. For more small things that make a big difference in the life of a child, read the VIRTUS® article “Modeling Healthy Behaviors” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Los adultos tienen la responsabilidad de dar ejemplos de comportamientos de un adulto responsable a los jóvenes bajo su cuidado. Comportamientos como seguir las reglas, escuchar a los niños en su vida, usar el cinturón de seguridad en el automóvil, mirar a ambos lados antes de cruzar la calle, todos enseñan a los niños que usted es un adulto de confianza y que se puede contar con usted para hacer lo correcto. Para aprender más sobre cosas pequeñas que marcan una gran diferencia en la vida de un niño, lea el artículo en inglés de VIRTUS® “Modeling Healthy Behaviors” (Modelando comportamientos saludables) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
