Sunday Gospel Reflection

Once I was at a meeting with representatives of various religions. On a coffee break, a man from another religion mused to me: "You know, with all our differences, all religions are really about being good people." I lowered my cappuccino and said as warmly as I could, "That's not what mine's about." His quizzical look begged for clarification. "Mine is about plunging into the life of God," I said.

Just before Jesus ascends into heaven, he commands the eleven apostles, "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Matthew 28:19-20). The word "baptize" means "to immerse in, to plunge into." It presupposes the use of water. But what does it mean to be immersed in God's name? In the Bible, God's name is identical to God Himself. So, to be baptized into water, using Jesus' formula, is to be plunged into the life of God. Said another way, it is to die with Jesus and rise with him as a member of his body.

The Trinity isn't a doctrine simply to accept and ponder. It's more like an ocean: a mystery into which we are baptized ... inserted, immersed, dunked, plunged. Baptism gives us power to live our lives as beloved children of God, patterned after Jesus himself, who is always with us, until the end of the ages. Hardly the same as being good people. Stranger, but much better. — Father John Muir ©LPI

Reflexión del Evangelio

Gloria al Padre, gloria al Hijo, y gloria al Espíritu Santo. "Vayan, pues, y hagan que todos los pueblos sean mis discípulos. Bautícenlos en el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo, y enséñenles a cumplir todo lo que yo les he encomendado a ustedes" (Mateo 28 19-20). El misterio de Dios es la Santísima Trinidad y es el misterio central de la fe y de la vida cristiana. Todos estamos llamados a salvarnos y a conocer la verdad (1 Timoteo 2:4). La fe de todos los cristianos se cimenta en la Santísima Trinidad (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica número 232).

"Dios mío, Trinidad que adoro, ayúdame a olvidarme enteramente de mí mismo para establecerme en ti, inmóvil y apacible como si mi alma estuviera ya en la eternidad; que nada pueda turbar mi paz, ni hacerme salir de ti, mi inmutable, sino que cada minuto me lleve más lejos en la profundidad de tu Misterio. Pacífica mi alma. Haz de ella tu cielo, tu morada amada y el lugar de tu reposo. Que yo no te deje jamás solo en ella, sino que yo esté allí enteramente, totalmente despierta en mi fe, en adoración, entregada sin reservas a tu acción creadora" (Oración de Santa Isabel de la Trinidad. Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica número 260). Nunca tratemos de descifrar el Misterio de la Trinidad, más bien dejemos llevar nuestra alma en la oración como Santa Isabel de la Trinidad. Ella fue una religiosa y mística francesa de la Orden de los Carmelitas Descalzos. ©LPI

Special Plenary Indulgence Issued by the Vatican

The Holy See has issued a plenary indulgence available to all pilgrims who venerate Saint Jude's relics. The Apostolic Penitentiary published the decree, Protocol Number 00471/2023-190/23/1.

What is a Plenary Indulgence?

Explaining a plenary indulgence requires clarifying what sin is and what it does.

Two things occur when we sin:

- #1. We incur guilt.
- #2. Our soul undergoes deformity.

Sacramental Confession removes the guilt (#1). However, the deformity (#2) remains. A person's heart is changed when it sins: sin deforms it. A deformed heart must be reformed in God's image and likeness before entering Heaven. Heaven is, by definition, the realm of the saints. No non-saints exist in Heaven; every soul in Heaven is a saint.

Herein is the difficulty. Of those people you have known who have already died, how many were you certain left the world as saints? Most know very few, if any. Yet we are told in the Letter to the Hebrews that no one can see the Lord without possessing holiness (Hebrews 12:14). That is why Purgatory exists: it is a state of purgation whereby a soul is purified through suffering so that it may enter God's presence in Heaven. That the saved may need purification—and are aided by the prayers of the living—is confirmed in 2 Maccabees 12:45: "He made atonement for the dead, that they might be delivered from their sin."

A plenary indulgence is an act by the Pope whereby he uses his authority as the successor of Saint Peter to declare the removal of one's accrued purgation to be spent in Purgatory (an instance of the papal "power of the keys" described in Matthew 16:18-19). A Catholic who gains a plenary indulgence receives a blank slate in terms of Purgatory up to the moment of attaining it.

The Conditions to Receive the Plenary Indulgence

1. Venerate the relics of St. Jude. There is no set way this needs to occur. Inside the Church where the relics are displayed, or at least someone on the grounds where they are present, say a prayer of your choosing (a formal prayer—such as an Our Father—or one made up by you) or make an act of veneration (e.g., touching the glass of the display case or making the Sign of the Cross). Please see the next section for those who cannot physically be present.
2. Pray for the Pope. Reciting one Our Father and one Hail Mary satisfies this condition.
3. Receive the Sacrament of Confession within twenty days of visiting the relics.
4. Receive Holy Communion within the same twenty days while free from grave sin.
5. Resolve to end all relationships with sin, even venial (i.e., non-mortal) sin. This condition is by far the most difficult and requires explaining. It entails making the decision that you will never sin again. This does not mean you lose the indulgence if you sin again. Once gained, an indulgence cannot be lost. However, it requires the decision in the heart to remove any ongoing relationship or dependency with sin.

For Those for Whom Visiting the Relic is Not Possible Due to Serious Inconvenience

6. Persons of old age, the sick, and all who are unable to leave their home for a serious reason (e.g., travel distance) may likewise gain the plenary indulgence after fulfilling condition #5 above and conditions #2-4 "as soon as possible" and fulfilling the additional condition of "joining themselves spiritually to Saint Jude's holy pilgrimage and offering their prayers, sufferings, and inconveniences to our merciful God."

English Lector Ministry

Are you called to proclaim the Word of God? All those baptized receive gifts from the Spirit ... gifts that can be used in a variety of ways to serve the Lord and each other. Answering the call to become a Lector allows you to enter into a deeper relationship with God, as God is revealed in sacred scripture.

Those participating in the Lector Ministry proclaim the Word at Masses offered on the weekends, during the week, special celebrations and on Holy Days of Obligation. New members are always welcome! We especially need help at the 5:00pm Saturday Mass and 12:30pm Sunday Mass. If you feel called into this ministry, please scan the QR code and fill out the form.

Maintaining a good social media presence

Social media activity is never truly hidden, even on private accounts. If you are working or volunteering with children, it is a good idea to keep a clean profile online. Read through the rules about social media usage for your organization – it may prohibit staff from contacting or friending children involved in the program. Consider your profile usage, including the things you post or share and the profiles you follow. For more tips, read the VIRTUS® article “Social Media Rules to Follow with Children” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

La actividad en las redes sociales nunca está realmente oculta, ni siquiera en cuentas privadas. Si usted trabaja o es voluntario con niños es una buena idea mantener un perfil limpio en línea. Lea las reglas sobre el uso de redes sociales en su organización, las cuales pueden prohibir que el personal se comunique o haga amistad con los niños involucrados en el programa. Considere el uso de su perfil, incluidas las cosas que publica o comparte y los perfiles que usted sigue.
